

Rights Based Approach And Disabled People's Organizations

Human rights

An approach

Disabled people

Rights Based Approach

RBA to development for the process of the human development is a conceptual frame work that is normatively based on international standards of human rights and operationally directed to promote and protect human rights.

Disabled People's Organization

An organization in which more than fifty one percent members of governing board comprised of people with disability and aims that promoting and protecting the human rights of disabled people (DPI)

Interrelations

- Self advocacy
- Equal participation
- Inclusive approach
- Empowerment and human rights are priority

Current situation

- Disabled people's organizations in Karnataka
- Similar organizations in Andhra Pradesh and in many other states
- Disabled people's movement in India

Conclusion

- More efforts by NGOs on the application of RBA in their processes.
- Massive capacity building exercises for DPOs on leadership, disability movement and inclusive development
- Focused efforts to promote-strengthen disabled peoples movement

Thank You
Jayanth Kumar YB
AIFO INDIA